

LEARN SOMETHING NEW IN 2022

University of Strathclyde
Glasgow

Centre for Lifelong Learning

We are delighted to announce that we are planning for the resumption of some on campus classes, for the January term and can't wait to welcome you back to the Graham Hills Building.

From January we will be offering 3 distinct programmes – here's the lowdown...

DAYTIME PROGRAMME

(aimed at those aged 50+) of campus-based classes. Our stock-in-trade since 1987, we will work to gradually build this back up to pre-pandemic levels.

Find out more about attending on campus class in the Daytime Programme here.

LIVE & ONLINE ZOOM

(aimed at those aged 50+). Our newest programme and one borne out of the pandemic. We know that some of you have enjoyed learning online so this programme is here to stay, bringing classes to you in the comfort of your home (wherever that may be!).

All classes are held at a specific time in the week and are led by our team of expert tutors – much in the same was our on-campus classes.

THE ONLINE EVENING PROGRAMME

(for adults of all ages) offers a range of new options commencing in January via Zoom. The perfect mix of classes for adults of all ages to start you on the path to learn a new skill or develop an interest.

Booking now open, visit: <https://mycll.strath.ac.uk/> for more information

The University of Strathclyde is a charitable body, registered in Scotland, number SC015263.